President Charles Mallia

From the President's Desk,

. We had our last zoom meeting last night, followed by a joint Board Meeting f2f at Flourish Cafe . Many thanks Maree and Staff for looking after us so well. Joint Board Meetings allow for a continuation of ideas to flow from one Leadership group to the next and last night was no different.

This Rotary Year is rapidly coming to the end. Next week will be the President's Night at Flourish followed by the Change Over at Sandhurst. Lots of planning and undisclosed events will take place that will make both evenings enjoyable and rewarding.

For most of this year, our Meetings, functions and projects, were looking decidedly shaky without a clear idea as to venues and numbers allowed. In spite of the restrictions, sometimes difficult to follow, we adapted and as our final Report will show, the Rotary Club of Frankston North has a great deal to be proud of.

Finally, this week, I must mention our Tipping Competition run by Double Past President/Secretary Eric Neill. It looks like an interesting double ended affair, with two competitions in one. One to the top and one to the bottom and both furiously competitive.

Keep safe,
Charles.
